House of Wines

Where we make the Wine and You save the Money.

November 1 to 30, 2010

Dear Friends,

Christmas is near with only 53 days left. This means that by the end of the week we won't be able to process six week wines. We can still make five week wines until November 13 but after that there will be no time left. So make sure to come in soon to order your Christmas Wine now.

We've brought back the 6-pack of sparkling wine. This year it is Prosecco and it's for Christmas only. You get six bottles for $65, however, there is only a limited quantity available so please order early. Its details can be found below this month's Featured Wines.

We'd also like to introduce our 2011 Restricted and Limited Quantity wines. Their details can also be found below.

Cheers, The HoW Crew.

Sparkling Wine 6-pack

The sparkling wine in the 6-pack is a very popular wine in Europe called Prosecco. Prosecco is an off dry sparkling wine from Italy. It's also the main ingredient in a Bellini cocktail.

It was traditionally made as a soft, slightly sweet wine with just a little fizz, but today's Proseccos are dry and very bubbly.

Straw-coloured Prosecco, with its overtones of citrus, melon, lemon, almonds, and honey, is a perfect wine. It's crisp and clean with small bubbles and pairs nicely with seafood, especially calamari and crabmeat, salads, and all but the heaviest pastas.

People from the area of Venice consider Prosecco ideal for stimulating your appetite or as a pick-me-up. Prosecco is also delicious when combined with fresh peach juice to make Venice's most famous cocktail, the Bellini.
